MARY, QUEEN OF SCOTS

Donizetti

Sung in English

An electric confrontation.

Two queens locked in a deadly struggle.

Experience a moment in history that never happened...

At the heart of Mary, Queen of Scots is a deadly conflict between Elizabeth Tudor, the reigning queen of England, and Mary Stuart, her cousin and rival for the throne.

The destinies of these two powerful women are entwined as their rivalry in love and politics culminates in a confrontation of bel canto fireworks.

Acclaimed British singers Anne Mason and Jennifer Rhys Davies portray Scotland's doomed queen and her royal rival, Elizabeth I.

Sure to be an enthralling night at the theatre!

Mary, Queen of Scots tours alongside new productions of Mozart's Così fan tutte and The (Little) Magic Flute. To receive the latest production and booking information join ETO Online now.

ETO is proud to present the British premiere of The (Little) Magic Flute, a version of Mozart's adventure story for the young and young at heart. Touring to London, Tunbridge Wells, Exeter, Malvern, Warwick, Perth and Bath. Visit our website or call 020 7833 2555 for more details.

COSI FAN TUTTE

Mozart

Sung in English

Fidelity tested

Emotions betrayed

Lovers deceived

A cynical gentleman's conviction that women cannot be faithful sets in motion a chain of deceit, disguise and desire in the most perfect ensemble opera ever written.

ETO's new period production stars Rachel Nicholls and Amanda Echalaz as the women put to the test, with Gardar Thór Cortes and Leslie John Flanagan as the fiancés who get more than they bargained for.

Comedy, high emotions and sublime music await in Mozart's harsh and tender lesson for lovers.

Così fan tutte tours alongside new productions of Mary, Queen of Scots and Mozart's The (Little) Magic Flute. To receive the latest production and booking information join ETO Online now.
