

English Touring Opera tours to more places in the UK than any other opera company, and has been producing innovative and high quality opera for over a quarter of a century. ETO is committed to making opera accessible to all, with tickets starting under £10.

This spring, we are presenting Mozart's Don Giovanni, Donizetti's Anna Bolena and Carlisle Floyd's Susannah. We hope that you join us to experience these great works and to get to know ETO a little better.

Spring 2008 also sees ETO touring the magical fairy tale of Red Riding Hood, in Tom Smail's musical adaption, to infant schools around the UK. As part of our ongoing national education programme, a team of singers, musicians and performers use the art of storytelling to demonstrate how inspiring and exciting classical music can be.

ENGLISH TOURING OPERA SPRING 2008

For the first time, English Touring Opera presents three new, fully staged opera productions that will tour in repertoire for the entire season. After an Autumn tour of Handel and Haydn delicacies, ETO moves to a red-blooded trio of operatic masterworks, with Mozart and Donizetti classics and the UK professional premiere of a 20th century American opera, Floyd's Susannah. James Conway, ETO's General Director, directs Anna Bolena and Susannah, and Jonathan Munby makes his ETO debut with Don Giovanni.
